AMERICAN STEAMSHIP IS SUNK WITHOUT WARNING

CHINA SEVERES DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH GERMANY AND SEIZES ALL INTERNED GERMAN VESSELS, TAKING CREWS PRISONER

TEN AMERICANS ABOARD ALGONQUIN
ESCAPE WHEN VESSEL IS TORPEDOED

Latest Violation Will Not Change Situation, Is View Taken By Officials in Discussing First Reports of Attack—Vessel Left New York February 20, And Loss Is $1,700,000.

REAL ISSUE IS EXPECTED TO DEVELOP
WHEN ARMED BOAT AND SUB. CLASH

London, March 14.—(Associated Press Cable)—The American steamship Algonquin has been torpedoed by a German submarine. The crew was saved. The Algonquin was torpedoed without warning, according to a report made to the American Consul at Plymouth.

There were ten Americans aboard, including the captain, the owners announced today.

There are two American steamships Algonquin. The one sunk was recently transferred from British registry.

She was a vessel of 1,806 tons gross, 245 feet long, and 40 feet of beam. She was built in 1888 at Glasgow and was owned in London. She was a single screw steamer.

New York, March 14.—(Associated Press Dispatch)—The American steamship Algonquin, with ten Americans aboard, was sunk by a German submarine on March 12, with a loss of vessel and cargo valued at $1,700,000.

A cable message received here today by her owners, the American Star Line, and dispatches from London told of the apparent safety of all the officers and crew, twenty-seven of whom have been landed.

A message to the owners said the vessel was torpedoed, but did not indicate where she was at the time.

According to a consular report from Plymouth, England, the Algonquin's captain stated his ship was sunk by shell fire without warning.

The Algonquin sailed from New York on February 20 with foodstuffs. Her destination was London.

She was one of the first American ships to leave the United States after Germany established her submarine blockade.

Washington, March 14.—(Associated Press Dispatch)—In the absence of official dispatches on the destruction of the steamer Algonquin, officials withheld comment, but the unofficial view was that nothing in the incident changes the situation between the United States and Germany.

The circumstance that the Algonquin carried foodstuffs, which are contraband, and that she recently was transferred from British to American registry, a transaction Germany might plead she could not recognize, are not taken to outweigh the fact that the ship was reported destroyed without warning.

Neither does the fact that apparently no lives were lost mitigate the situation.

But the real fact, as unofficially expressed, is that while the destruction of an American ship in such a manner is very serious, the American government already has taken all the steps it can take to meet such a case unless it wishes to take the last step and declare war.

The real issue of peace or war is expected to come when an American armed ship has a clash with a German submarine.

Up to the present, in the absence of action by Congress, all that could be done to meet such a case as the destruction of the Algonquin already has been done.

It is generally accepted on first reports as not being the "overt act."

By Associated Press Dispatch. Washington, March 14.—Consul Stephens at Plymouth reported the sinking of the Algonquin in the following dispatch:

"Steamer Algonquin of New York,

THOUSAND FOOT SPAN, COST $27,000,000
OPENED AND DEDICATED TO PUBLIC USE

SPAN ACROSS HELL GATE

The new Hell Gate bridge, a single 1,000 foot span, and the newly constructed New York Connecting Railroad, linking the Pennsylvania and New York, New Haven and Hartford systems and making possible an all rail route via New York from the New England states to the south and west, were dedicated to the public service.

The first train to pass over the six miles of four track elevated connecting railroad and the mammoth bridge extending from Long Island to the Bronx left the Pennsylvania station. Besides officials, it bore Gustav Lindenthal designer of the bridge who formally turned it and the railroad over to Samuel Rea, president of the Pennsylvania.

A J. County, vice president of the railroad, opened the dedication ceremonies at the Bronx end of the bridge. After the structure had been formally tendered by Mr. Lindenthal, Mr. Rea said:

"This connecting railroad bridge has taken four years to construct and has cost more than $27,000,000. This railroad, with its East River bridge, is transferred to the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company for operation as a part of its system to replace the river service over the Hudson and East rivers."

The inauguration of train service over the new route and the restoration of the Federal express, the night train between Boston and Washington, will take place soon.

BREAK BETWEEN BROTHERHOOD
AND RAILROAD HEADS IS NEARSecrecy Enshrouds Conference Today
as Strike Plans
Are Formulated.ORIGINAL DEMANDS
AGAIN TO BE MADE

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, March 14.—Strict secrecy was thrown about the meeting here today between the national chiefs of the brotherhoods of railway employees and Eastern brotherhood officials, to discuss plans for the strike which may be called Saturday if the chiefs at the conference with the railroad managers here tomorrow fail to attain the desired results.

The brotherhood heads arrived here today from Washington and went to a meeting, where were assembled 300 of the chairmen of the brotherhoods of trainmen on lines entering New York, and chairmen of the four local organizations.

Announcement was made that if any statement was made as to the action taken, it would be given out to night.

Representatives of the railroad managers said today they were still without information as to the nature of the proposition which the brotherhood chiefs would submit to them, and reiterated their position that their hands were tied until the Supreme Court renders a decision on the constitutionality of the Adamson act.

General instructions, it was learned, were issued sometime ago to the local chairmen as to their duties in case of a strike.

They were informed that they would be expected jointly to supervise the prosecution of the strike in the territory over which they have jurisdiction, keep in close touch with the situation, "use every honorable effort to further the cause," and make daily reports to their general chairman as to conditions.

While the chairmen were holding their meeting, the National Conference Commission of the railroads was called together, preparatory to the joint session with the chiefs tomorrow.

While professing not to know what the brotherhood chiefs would demand, railroad representatives said just before the National Conference went into session that they would not be surprised if they demanded that the provision of the Adamson law be put in to immediate operation, together with a provision for time and a half for overtime; or, in substance, complete compliance with the original demands which began the controversy a year ago.

While the national chiefs of the four railroad brotherhoods were discussing with the Eastern brotherhood officials the plan for the threatened nationwide railroad strike, which may begin Saturday, representatives of the railway managers made public what they declared was a promise not to strike made by the brotherhood heads in secret meeting in Chicago, January 13.

They quoted from the text of the statement a passage which says "no radical action would be taken until the decision of the Supreme Court has been handed down in connection with the eight hour law."

W. G. Lee, president of the brotherhoods of railroad trainmen was asked about this statement after the brotherhoods meeting had recessed with an announcement that no action had been taken at the forenoon session, but that the meeting would be resumed late this afternoon.

Mr. Lee said he would not discuss anyone's interpretation of the Chicago statement.

"It was right then, and it is right now," he declared. "And I am not going to say anything about it."

Washington, March 14.—American Minister Reisch at Peking today reported to the State Department that China had severed diplomatic relations with Germany, and that the German Minister had been handed his passports.

Second Man Is Probably Fatally Wounded in Bold Cleveland Holdup—Police Pursue.

Cleveland, O., March 14.—Cuyler Mowrey, paymaster for N. J. Rich & Company, knitgoods manufacturers, was shot and killed by two automobile bandits in front of the Rich factory, on East Sixty-first street, this afternoon. The robbers secured $5,400 and escaped in an automobile.

Nathan Halperon, accompanying Mowrey, also was shot by the robbers. Halperon is in a hospital in a critical condition, with two bullet wounds in his body.

Mowrey, Halperon, and Julius Copeland were returning from the bank with a bag containing $5,400. Halperon and Copeland were carrying the bag and Mowrey was walking beyond.

As the three crossed East Sixty-first street to enter the Rich factory a man jumped from an automobile opposite the factory.

Another man came from in front of the Rich building, where he had evidently been waiting.

The man from the machine drew a revolver and started shooting. Mowrey drew a revolver and a fusillade of bullets followed.

The two robbers wrested the bag from Copeland and Halperon and ran to their machine and sped away.

Both robbers are described as about 25 years old. Police took up the chase in a high powered car and are reported in close pursuit of the bandits.

14 KILLED IN EXPLOSION

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Canonsburg, Pa., March 14.—Fourteen men were killed by the explosion in the mine of the Henderson Coal Company at Hendersonville, near here, yesterday.

Thirteen bodies have already been brought to the surface. Another body was found today and will be taken out later.

Rescuers are still at work; but because of the great amount of debris, it will be several days before all passageways have been searched.

Professor Frank W. Taussig, of Harvard University; former Representative David J. Lewis, of Cumberland, Md.; former Representative William Kent, of Kentfield, Cal.; Daniel C. Roper, of McCall, S. C.; E. T. Costigan, of Denver, Colo.; W. F. Culbertson, of Emporia, Kansas.

SIX MEN KILLED BY EXPLOSION IN MUNITIONS PLANT

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Olean, N. Y., March 14.—Six men were killed in an explosion which demolished the solvent factory at the Howard plant of the Aetna Explosive Company, at Emporium, Pa., today, according to a telephone message received here.

Simultaneously with the explosion, a fire was discovered in the building used for cotton storage, half a mile away. The building wrecked by the explosion was 100 feet long by 35 feet wide.

The fire in the cotton storage building was extinguished before serious damage was done.

HARVEY JACKS FOUND GUILTY GOES TO PEN

Jury Out Three Hours and Verdict of Manslaughter Is Returned for Killing of Tom Waldren.

Harvey Jacks, facing a charge of manslaughter for shooting Tom Waldren on the night of December 9th, 1916, has been found guilty of the crime as charged, and draws an indeterminate term in the penitentiary to which institution he will, in all probability, be taken in the near future.

The crime of which Jacks was found guilty occurred at the Waldren home, on the Persinger farm just over in Pickaway county and was the result of a drunken debauch. Jacks had been drawn to the Waldren home to see Waldren's sister, Mrs. Marie Little it was determined in the trial and the quarrel and shooting followed. Waldren died the following day.

The trial was held at Circleville and a number of persons from this city were subpoenaed.

The State was represented by Irvin F. Snyder and Prosecutor John L. Heise while Jacks was represented by Charles Gerhardt of Circleville, and James M. Morton, of Sabina, a relative to the prisoner by marriage.

Jacks was well known in this city, and his parents reside near here.

DITCH HEARING IS AGAIN POSTPONED

At a meeting of the county commissioners of Fayette, Ross and Pickaway counties in this city, Wednesday morning, in the interests of the Kilpatrick tri-county ditch case, further hearing of the case was postponed until March 28th, when the officials of the three counties will meet in Circleville.

In the meantime the three prosecutors will decide what lands can be assessed, and some other points.

YOUNG MAN WHO MAKES GOOD HAS WON HIS FREEDOM

Silas Bender, young man who a few months ago surrendered himself to Sheriff Jones and asked to be sent back to the Illinois state prison, from which institution he was out on parole has been released and is now with his mother, endeavoring to make her happy.

The young man, when he surrendered, announced that he desired to make a new start; to finish his term in the Illinois state prison, and start with a clean score. The prison authorities were notified, came after him and he has served his time and on March 6th was released accordingly.

He is now located at Silvia, Illinois, where he is endeavoring to live down his past and make his aged mother happy in her declining years.

Bender, in a letter just written to Sheriff Jones expressed his appreciation of the many acts of kindness shown him while he was in the county jail here.

FAYETTE WHEAT IMPROVES RAPIDLY

With the warmer weather and heavy rains the growing wheat in this part of Ohio, which a few weeks ago some were inclined to say had been all but entirely killed by the zero weather, has shown a marked improvement, and the fields are green up rapidly.

In a great many sections the freeze apparently has not seriously damaged the crop, and the farmers are greatly pleased with the change for the better.

HIGH WATERS IN FAYETTE COUNTY

During the past 48 hours the creeks of the county have been swollen by the continued rains until many of the streams have overflowed their banks and inundated much bottom land.

However so far no damage of consequence has resulted from the swollen streams, and the indications are that they will recede rapidly.

STIMSON WILL DISPOSES OF LARGE ESTATE

Bulk of Property of Late Chas. M. Stimson Deceaded to Charitable and Religious Institutions.

Mr. Frank A. White, a cousin of the late Mr. Chas. M. Stimson, of Los Angeles, Cal., donor of the Stimson annex Y. M. C. A., has received a copy of the Los Angeles Examiner of March 10th which makes public the will of the late Mr. Stimson.

Throughout his life Mr. Stimson gave vast sums to various philanthropies and charities and pursued the same policy in the distribution of his estate.

The substance of the will reads: "Charles M. Stimson, capitalist and philanthropist, provided in his will, which was filed yesterday for probate in the Superior Court, that one third of his estate valued at more than $400,000, should be expended for 'evangelizing Christianity'."

Not only did he provide that the full amount allowed by California law should be devoted to charitable and benevolent purposes, but he inserted in his will an iron bound provision to prevent the money from being used for any other purpose than that of orthodox Christianity.

After making thirty bequests for the furtherance of various kinds of religious work the philanthropist provided as follows:

"All bequests herein made for religious work for the express purpose of spreading the gospel are intended for the purpose of evangelizing Christianity as held and taught by the evangelical churches of the United States and no such bequests shall be paid over to any beneficiary except upon a proper receipt expressing agreement to use such fund for that purpose only; and to so apply said fund that the money never in any way will be used to foster any doctrine, practice or tenet subversive of, or contrary to the fundamental doctrine of orthodox Christianity."

Attorneys Thos. C. Ridgeway and Wm. Chambers, who prepared the petition stated that $400,000 would be a conservative estimate and that the estate will probably go above that figure in value.

Shortly before his death it is stated Mr. Stimson gave away $200,000 for religious work about half of which went to the Bible Institute. The will was executed Jan. 28, 1916 when the testator was 74 years of age.

The bequests made for religious and charitable purposes totaled $106,800. The bulk of the remainder is left to relatives and the residue placed in the hands of his brother, Geo. W. Stimson and sister Mrs. Abbie Ingalls as trustees to be applied by them to benevolent purposes as they see fit.

Among bequests made to relatives: Mary A. Hegler, a niece, of Peoria, Ill., $25,000; a like amount to be divided between Fred M. Stimson, Cincinnati, Arthur M. Stimson, Heading Springs, Va. and Annie S. Ereith, Little Falls, N. Y.; $25,000 to be divided among the children of Albert M. Stimson, deceased; $25,000 to be divided among the children of Martin W. Stimson, deceased.

Marshall Stimson, $7250, and $2000 to the latter's children; Ethel Stimson $8333.33; Mrs. Marion Gordon, $8333.33, George Stimson Pasadena, $25,000 and Mrs. Abbie Ingalls, Hot Springs, Va., $25,000.

THE FATE OF DOGS IS YET UNDECIDED; COMING UP AGAIN

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., March 14.—The fate of "man's best friend," the dog, still hangs in the balance before the Eighty-second General Assembly. The Platt bill which would permit the killing of every dog running at large without a license tag, furnished by the assessor, as evidence that the tax has been paid upon the animal, passed the House but is to come up before the Senate next week.

While representatives of Humane Societies are pleading for the dog, members of the state grange argue that it is more important that sheep be protected. They charge that the great number of stray dogs running at large in the hill counties of the state are responsible for the loss in production of wool and sheep in Ohio. If the sheep industry is to be encouraged in Ohio, they argue, the sheep must have protection from the dogs. It was stated before the House committee on agriculture, considering the Platt bill that if all sheep killed by dogs in Ohio in one year were lined up it would make a line 22 miles long.

"FOLK-KITCHEN" TO FEED POOR

Farewell, Captain Jack

John Wallace Crawford, beloved "Poet Scout," has hit the long trail. The noted traveler has departed on his last and longest journey. Behind him a multitude of sorrowing friends—thousands of them—wave him a fond farewell.

Few men leave this world so widely regretted as "Captain Jack" Crawford. The nation, first of all, regrets the passing of a loyal and useful son. But it is not so much as a nation that we grieve for this great lovable fellow—it is as individuals, and myriad we be, that we feel his loss most keenly. Since his lecture here a few years ago, Captain Crawford has numbered many Washington persons in his wide circle of devoted friends and admirers.

Jack Crawford was a faithful American. Unhesitatingly and without reserve we pay him this eulogy. Plainsman, scout, soldier, courier, government agent and vigorous warrior in behalf of clean youth, he has done his country invaluable service. As an honest, generous, big hearted "friend of everybody," his memory will be cherished when his deeds of valor and diplomacy have faded into forgetfulness.

Born in Ireland, Crawford came with his parents to this country in his boyhood. During the Civil War, a Pennsylvania volunteer, he was twice wounded in the service of his country. His valor went not unnoted. He was recommended and installed as one of Custer's chief aides in the later Indian uprisings. One of the finest horsemen on the frontier, he proved an invaluable courier, and it was this duty that spared him the fate of Custer. He was on his way, after a long journey, to rejoin Custer when the historic massacre occurred. He was greatly respected and admired by the Indians and was often pressed into the service of mediator between the reds and whites.

On Buffalo Bill's resignation as chief scout, he succeeded that noted character in Crook's command. He was one of the prime movers in the founding of Custer City, Gayville, Spearfish and Deadwood.

After the Sioux had fled into Canada and peace returned to the land with the influx of settlers into the Dakotas, Captain Jack, like Buffalo Bill found himself out of employment. But it was not for long. The Government again availed itself of his services, this time as a detective in the Department of Justice, where for years he rendered valuable if inconspicuous service.

Crawford had but one score to settle with civilization. Liquor had demoralized his father and broken up his home. In his later years he personally organized "The Boy Heroes of the World," 35,000 strong. For the most part these are reclaimed wayward youth, devoted to their founder and grouped about the banner of morality and prohibition. Thus Captain Crawford settled his score.

Farewell, Captain Jack.

American Thriftlessness

Persons who have studied the economical situation carefully in the United States are inclined to be fearful for the welfare of the "rank and file" of the people and point to present abnormal prices for commodities as an indication of serious conditions.

While admitting the truth of the nation's prosperity as a nation, they contend that as individuals we are prodigate; that we are walking in the footsteps of Babylon, and that if we do not restrain our thriftlessness we shall meet the fate of that ancient city.

The fact that the country should be rolling in wealth while the general run of its citizens are facing privation is a paradox difficult to accept; yet there is undoubtedly more truth than fiction in what our observers tell us.

The typical American citizen is decidedly lax in managing his finances compared with that element of the population of recent foreign extraction in this country. This may be due to the fact that those of us who can trace our ancestry to the early settlers of the continent are of an adventurous, trust-in-luck lineage; for it was only the exceedingly venture-some that dared the dangers and uncertainty of settling in the New World in the early days of the country's history.

The descendants of these early fathers at the same time inherit a bold enterprising, and sagacious spirit which has evidenced itself in the remarkable progress of American business.

A proper mixture of thrift with this enterprise would make America a country prosperous not merely in itself but in its citizenry generally, and it is with wisdom that these advocates of economy urge the establishment in American schools of a "thrift course" for inculcating into the youth an appreciation of economy and a comprehensive knowledge of its practise.

Poetry For Today

CLOTURE.
It was an ancient Senator,
Who wiped away a tear.
"No more!" he said; "ah, nevermore
Shall I spill language here.
No more, no more I'll take the floor
And talk one solid year!"
"Oh! I remember, with a thrill
That stirs my inmost soul,
The day I put my language mill
Beyond all men's control.
And simply talked to death the bill
For Suffrage at the Pole!"
"I talked the glory that was Rome's
I dwelt a week on Greece;
I went from Scandinavian gnomes
To Mr. Jason's fleece.
I had the pages bring more tomes
And spoke another piece!"
"I talked about the price of drinks
In Chamberlin's cafe;
I probed the riddle of the Sphinx,
Discussed the Roentgen ray;
And by the time I'd thought these things,
Six months I'd talked away!"
"For six months more, you understand
I talked by days and nights
On vivisection, taxing land,
Mince pie and troglodytes.
They brought my meals in to me and I talked between the bites!"
"I talked of chewing-gum and kraut,
Skirts, symphonies and sin,
And not a man could ever doubt
The prowess of my chin.
For lo! I talked one Congress out, Another Congress in!"
"But now, alas! an era new
Has hit our Parliament;
I cannot talk a session through,
From Christmas up to Lent!"
And so he faded from my view,
But talking as he went!

Charter Proposal Lost.
Newark, O., March 14.—With fewer than one-third of the voters visiting the polls, Newark turned down the proposition to change its form of government and elect a commission to draft a new charter. The vote was 914 for and 1,167 against the proposition. A score of men were candidates for charter commissioners.

Gas Exploded.
Dayton, March 14.—Gas, which had collected in the furnace in the residence of Mrs. Pearl Duckro, twenty-seven, exploded when she started the fire and created a human torch of her body. She was rushed to a hospital. Although fatally burned, the woman crawled up the cellar stairs and removed her two infants from danger, then turned in a fire alarm.

BERNSTORFF DECLARES INNOCENCE

(By American Press)
London, March 14.—In an interview at Copenhagen, Count Von Bernstorff expressed satisfaction at the way the German people are bearing the results of the breach in relations with America, which he so long prevented.

The former German ambassador to the United States was keenly affected by the news which he received for the first time at Christiania that instructions which had passed through his hands to the German minister in Mexico had come to the knowledge of the American government.

"It is natural that its publication caused a great sensation in America," Count Von Bernstorff said, declaring "we always strictly declined to mix ourselves in the politics of the American continent."

All American assertions about such intrigues in Haiti, Cuba and Colombia are fairy tales, Count Von Bernstorff is quoted as saying, and adding that positively so long as he was ambassador at Washington he was never aware of the slightest indication that the German government tried to influence the policy in Central and South American states in any sense hostile to the United States.

The interview concludes with the declaration from Count Von Bernstorff that from instructions to the German minister to Mexico it was clear that the Mexican government, if the United States did not declare war on Germany, would never have heard of Germany's intentions from a German mouth. "I believe it is hardly possible to have acted more correctly," he said.

Interrogated as to whether he thought there would be war between Germany and the United States, he replied: "That depends on our U-boat warfare. If we sink an American ship we shall get war. If not, I suppose we can avoid it."

"And if Germany sinks British ships with American citizens aboard?" was asked. To this Count Von Bernstorff replied: "That is not the same."

Germans Again Fall Back.
London, March 14.—According to the British war office communication under another of the terrible British bombardments the Germans have abandoned their main defensive system west of Bapaume on a front of three and a half miles to a depth of a mile. The advance gave the British troops the village of Grevillers and the Loupart wood, bringing the advanced British forces at the former place to a point a mile and a half from the northwestern outskirts of Bapaume.

JEFFERSON WILL HOLD ELECTION APRIL SEVENTH

Question of Centralizing Fourteen Schools of Jefferson Township Will Be Determined in Near Future—Paint Also Will Vote.

The question of centralizing the public schools of Jefferson township will be voted on throughout the township, on April 7th, according to a resolution adopted by the Boards of education at a recent meeting.

There are fourteen schools in Jefferson township, outside of Jeffersonville, and the plan is to consolidate the schools into two large buildings transporting the pupils to and from the building wherever necessary.

Those in touch with the situation in Jefferson township believe that the election will carry in favor of the consolidation, and also for the issuance of bonds with which to construct the two buildings necessary to properly take care of the consolidated schools.

Announcement also is made that with the destruction of the school building at Bookwalter, action toward centralization in Paint township is hastened, and that the Board of Education of that township will soon pass a resolution to centralize the schools in that township.

This resolution is now being prepared and will be submitted at an early meeting.

In Social Circles

The Browning Club held an interesting meeting last evening with President Mrs. Coffman in charge. After the business is Treasurer's and Secretary's reports, special attention was called to the meet Tuesday evening at the High School Auditorium when Dr. Jaras of Columbus, will deliver his illustrated lecture.

The topics for next year's club work were discussed and decided on, "United States and Miscellaneous;" the club feeling nothing could have more interest.

In the department work Miss Olive Sprenger, chairman, Mrs. Belle Woolard, vice chairman of History Department. In Literature, Mrs. Frances Junk, chairman, Miss Esther Leland, vice chairman. In Art Department, Mrs. Jess Blackmore, chairman, Mrs. Morna Chapman, vice chairman; Household Economics, Mrs. Dina Peisinger, chairman, Miss Gertrude Channel, vice chairman; Social Science and Philanthropy, Mrs. Regina Staubus, chairman, Mrs. Mae Pearson Gage, vice chairman. Mrs. Loyce Sever, chairman of Social Science Department, had charge of program.

Miss Laura Sutton gave a most interesting talk on the subject of "Nursing." The system of nursing dates back to Florence Nightingale and the developing training school for nurses in 1860. These schools signified equipment of fresh air, warmth, light, diet, and care. The first in America was in 1877. The "Art of Nursing" has developed to mean a great deal. There are practical nurses, hospital nurses, registered nurses in forty-four states, public health and district nurses, Tuberculosis nursing, industrial or factory nursing which means a great deal. There are sixty-five nursing centers in Ohio and this says much, it is to be hoped, for Ohio's future health.

A review of some of the magazines by Miss Goldie Baughn read by Mrs. Kennedy, gave much interesting information. The inauguration of Presidents, Trade of Foreign Countries since the war and increase of gold coin; some critical points as to the "Movies"; presentation of big rees in California and description of hospital cars for military service covered the subjects handled.

A beautiful piano solo was given by Miss Goldie Ryan, Beethoven's "Pathétique".

The closing paper was on "Henry Ford as Philanthropist" given by Mrs. H. L. Spray. Every generation has its own problems in a philanthropic way and Ford is a wonderful exception as he says his real business is not so much the Auto manufactory, even though he has a hundred and fifty million dollars in annual results, but the making of men! He has forty-three thousand in his plant.

His "Peace Project" as presented this last year has shown the spirit of the man as also his magnanimous offer of his immense plant for the Country's use in any service.

Mrs. Rose Hughey was elected to the active membership of the club.

The Cecilians of this city, who have done so much for the music of Washington have recently extended a great advantage to the younger musicians of the city, by inviting them to be members of an organization directly under their supervision. This organization was effected two weeks ago at which time Miss Margaret McDonald was elected president; Miss Lela Culberson, vice president; Miss Gladys Fenner, treasurer; Miss Martha Teeters, active secretary and Miss Ruth Reid, corresponding secretary.

The first program of the society was held Monday night at the home of the president, Miss McDonald. Miss Minnie Light representing the Cecilians, gave an interesting talk to the girls, outlining the work and the purpose of the organization. The different studies that will be pursued were then discussed and the musical program followed. Miss Bernice O'Bryant's piano solo showed artistic interpretation. Miss Martha Teeters accompanied by Miss Margaret McDonald, played a pretty violin number. This number showed that the club is fortunate in having a number of violinists who do creditable work. Miss Marian Christopher, a young pianist of much talent played excellently. The vocal solos of Miss Louise Larimer with Miss Lizzie Ellyn Green accompanist were greatly enjoyed. Miss Larimer's sweet voice was especially suited to the selections sung. The program closed with a piano number by Miss Frances Merriweather. Miss Merriweather's true musical sympathy was well expressed.

The twenty-four girls present, consisting of girls in the high school and former graduates of the high school, manifested much enthusiasm in the work undertaken. Owing to the spring vacation work coming the week of the 25th of March it was voted to hold the next meeting one week earlier, next Monday evening, March 19th.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lee McClain of Greenfield are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Helen, and Mr. Robert S. Young, of Concord, North Carolina, the marriage to take place in June.

The Cecilians devoted Tuesday afternoon entirely to business, completing a number of sweeping changes by which these club women hope to do more in community musical work. Heretofore the Cecilians has been a study club but its present purpose to widen out and become the center of a musical activity that has a great possibilities.

The club completed the work of revising the constitution and by laws, which has taken some time.

The club membership will be enlarged and will now include an associate list, to which any one who desires is eligible by paying the membership fee of $2.00. This entitles them to any entertainment or concert which is given during the club year. The plan is modeled after that of the Woman's Music Club at Columbus. The Cecilians are hoping to offer many attractions during the coming year.

Mrs. D. S. Craig made a report upon the "Community Sing," expressing the gratification the Cecilians feel in the hearty support of the Board of Education. The Board is anxious that the Community Sing be continued and freely extends the use of the High School Auditorium.

There will be none next Sunday, but on the following Sunday, March 25th.

The Cecilians will close the year's work with a recital on March 27th. A number of new active members are being taken in.

In addition to plans for community work the club is taking up extension work and has organized a High School Girls' Students Club. This will be an independent branch under the supervision of the Cecilians.

Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Hughes returned Tuesday evening from a month's travel in the South, spending most of the time in Asheville, N. C., visiting Savannah, Ga., Charleston, S. C., and other cities enroute.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kelley and Mrs. Robert Smart of Xenia, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Howat, Wednesday while here to attend the funeral of Mr. Frank L. Stutson, a cousin of Mrs. Smart.

The welcome word was received from Columbus Wednesday morning that Mrs. D. H. Rowe has rallied nicely after quite a serious operation at Mt. Carmel hospital, and there is much encouragement for her complete recovery.

J. W. Armstrong, who recently sold his farm in the Beech Grove neighborhood and moved to Washington C. H., was in town on business Tuesday. He has purchased a grocery store in the neighboring city and has an excellent business chance, in the judgment of business men. He and his family were well-liked citizens of the progressive Beech Grove community and will be greatly missed by their friends.—Wilmington News.

Mrs. Eldora Stinson returned Tuesday night from an extensive Southern trip. She accompanied the Barrett party of forty people from Cincinnati. After touring the Eastern coast of Florida stopping in Jacksonville, St. Augustine, Miami and Palm Beach, the party sailed from Key West over the Keys to Havana, Cuba, and made an interior tour to the Isle of Pines. The party had quite an experience in visiting the Forts of Cuba, rigorously guarded. Although they had written permission from the Governor, the guns were turned on their boats and they were not allowed to land until the Governor had been interviewed by the authorities. Enroute home Mrs. Stinson visited Misses Deltz, in Muskogee, Okla. Friends here will be glad to know that these musicians are doing very well, with growing reputations in concert work.

NEW COMMERCIAL PORT IN CHINA

(Associated Press Cable.)
Chinwangtao, China, March 14.—Plans are under consideration by the government for the formal opening of this port for commercial purposes to replace the port of Lienshanwan, which has been acquired by the ministry of the navy as a naval base. During the winter months Chinwangtao is constantly used by steamers which are unable to approach Tien-tsin because of the ice in the river.

This port is never closed by ice, but cannot afford a safe harbor for shipping until a large breakwater is constructed.

Chinwangtao is one hundred miles north of Tien-tsin, and is used quite generally as a coaling station by ships of all nations. For many years the American transports between San Francisco and Manila have made this a port of call, coaling here.

SNAIL FARMERS MAKING MONEY

(Associated Press Cable.)
Paris, March 14.—French snail farmers are making tidy fortunes out of the war. More than half the French supply of this delicacy has been cut off by the German occupation of Luxembourg, Belgium and northern France and the market price has risen accordingly. The demand for snails has also been stimulated by the new food regulations, which class snails with oysters as a "hors d'oeuvre," of which one may eat as much as one wishes.

As many as half a million first quality snails, worth $5 to $10 a thousand, can be reared on an acre of land. They have to be fed only once a day, preferably in the evening. A bed of 100,000 snails will consume a wagon load of cabbages in a few minutes, and the noise which they make at their repast is like nothing else in the world.

20 MORE MEN WANTED BY COMPANY M

Company to Assemble Sunday Afternoon at Two O'clock—Better Pay Pleases All—No Strike Duty Indicated.

Company M, Fourth Ohio United States Guards, of this city, will assemble at the Armory at two o'clock Sunday afternoon for the purpose of preparing for regular drill at stated intervals, and getting all equipment in place.

Orders have been issued by Captain O. E. Hardway for all members of the Company to assemble at the Armory at the time stated, and it is expected that each of the 80 officers and men will be in place accordingly for the first time since their arrival here from the border.

When it became known about that the company had been ordered to report at the Armory at the time above mentioned, the report immediately spread that Company M was to be ready for duty in case of a railroad strike. This, however, is not the purpose, it is announced.

Company M also wants 20 recruits and those interested in becoming a member of the splendid company are urged to report at the Armory Sunday afternoon, for enlistment.

In former years Guardsmen were paid 25 cents for each drill attended, and drill was held each Monday night. However, under the new Federal pay each private draws $1 for each drill night; each corporal draws $1.15; each drill attended, and each Sergeant $1.30 each drill attended. This, coupled with the fact that the company will have fifteen days encampment each year instead of one week, and at the usual pay, is a much greater inducement to offer than in previous years, and it is expected that the company will soon obtain the additional 20 men to bring it up to 100.

When on strike duty or in regular service, the pay then is regular. Each member is paid direct from the War Department at Washington, D. C., instead of from the state funds.

Beginning at once the Company will assemble for drill each Monday night, and the drill occupies one and one-half hours.

SENATOR H. C. LODGE

Refers to Alleged German Intrigues in Colombia.

ATTACKED BY LODGE

(By American Press)

Washington, March 14.—Senator Stone, chairman of the foreign relations committee, was instructed by the committee members to lay the Colombian treaty, with amendments, before the senate.

One amendment adopted again makes the proposed payment to the republic of Colombia for its Panama canal claims $25,000,000, instead of $15,000,000. Another expresses mutual regret that there should have been any difficulty over the settlement and a third provides that the title of the United States to the canal zone shall become unquestioned at once.

Republican leaders, still hostile in spite of the changes, said there would be no filibuster to prevent action, but that more than thirty senators were pledged to vote against the treaty.

As amended, the expression of regret that anything should have occurred to mar the friendly relations between the two countries would be made in the treaty both with the United States and Colombia, instead of the United States only, as by the original draft, and the amount to be paid Colombia for the separation of Panama is restored to $25,000,000. Last year the senate committee cut the sum to $15,000,000. In addition the committee recommended an accompanying resolution proposed by Senator Knox which would declare that the United States must not be understood to be apologizing and that there is nothing to apologize for.

Senator Knox, as secretary of state under Taft, negotiated a convention with Colombia on the same subject.

Senator Lodge, ranking Republican member of the committee, issued a statement condemning the treaty and declaring that even if he favored it he would not support it at this time, because he was not willing to have the country blackmailed.

"We are told, and truly, I have no doubt," he said, "that German intrigues and German influences have been active in Colombia, and therefore we must ratify this treaty at once and pay Colombia $25,000,000. We are told that Colombia will furnish submarine bases to Germany, from which she can assault our shipping and the Panama canal, and therefore in the present crisis we must ratify the treaty and buy Colombia off with $25,000,000 and an apology. That we are not properly prepared for war, I am well aware, but we have not sunk so low that Colombia can levy tribute from us. We should have no more security against Colombia's helping our enemies after giving her $25,000,000 than after refusing to do so."

Net income of the Willys-Overland company, Toledo, in 1916, was $17,529,489, says the annual report issued by the company.

PEACE EXPECTED AMONG NATIVES

(Associated Press Cable.)

London, March 14. — General Botha, Prime Minister of the Union of South Africa, has recognized Solomon the hereditary chief of the Zulus, as administrative head of the tribe, a step which, students here expect, will bring about peace between the warring natives in the British colony.

How Solomon was given the task is interesting. The Prime Minister, who is also minister of Native Affairs, summoned Solomon—son of the once famous Dinizulu and grandson of Cetewayo—and informed him that he had decided to appoint him to administer the Zulu tribes. General Botha told him that he was being sent back to his father's district. To maintain peace and not to make trouble. You must understand very clearly that you are not being sent to raise military kraals or impis. I want peace now and rest for the Zulu nation."

Solomon is to be directly responsible to the government for the tribe, and he was urged to promote education and do everything possible to improve its position and character.

WILSON MAY TAKE HAND IN STRIKE

(By American Press)

Washington, March 14. — Local union leaders here from southeastern territory and representatives of the southwest at St. Louis have ratified plans of the railroad brotherhoods for a nation-wide strike, to be started next Saturday evening, unless the railroads grant their eight hour day demands.

The brotherhood heads will tell the railroad conference committee in New York tomorrow that if an agreement is not reached this week for the establishment of an eight hour basic day, with time and a half for overtime, strike orders already issued to local organizations will become effective. The demands are just what they were last fall when President Wilson averted a strike after the call was out by inducing congress to pass the Adamson law, which never has been put into effect, pending a decision on its constitutionality by the supreme court.

There is every indication that the president is prepared to move again if it becomes apparent that the nation, facing the gravest international crisis of its history, is about to have its transportation facilities paralyzed. Although still confined to his bed by a cold, the president heard reports from Secretary Wilson on the plans of the brotherhoods. There was no statement as to what action he was contemplating, but it is understood to be probable that his first step may be an appeal to the employers and employees to reach an agreement as a patriotic duty.

It became known that on March 7 the brotherhood chiefs wrote to the president advising him of the meeting to be held with the railroad committee March 15 and assuring him that if the country should become involved in war they would co-operate with the government in every possible way.

The southeastern union officials were told by the brotherhood chiefs that the strike orders had been arranged so as to have the walkout begin on a certain group of roads at 7 p. m. (eastern standard time), Saturday, and gradually extend to all roads in the country by next Wednesday. This progressive system, the union men say, was adopted to avoid paralyzing traffic suddenly throughout the entire country and to give railroads a chance to stop the strike's spread by meeting the union demands if they wish.

DOES RHEUMATISM BOTHER YOU?

Many Doctors Use Musterole

So many sufferers have found relief in Musterole that you ought to buy a small jar and try it.

Just spread it on with the fingers. Rub it in. First you feel a gentle glow, then a delicious, cooling comfort. Musterole melts the twinges, loosens up stiffened joints and muscles.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It penetrates to the seat of pain and drives it away, but does not blister the tenderest skin. It takes the place of the messy, old-fashioned mustard plaster.

Musterole is recommended for bronchitis, croup, asthma, pleurisy, lumbago, neuralgia, sprains, bruises, stiff neck, headache and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

MANAGERS IN CONFERENCE

(By American Press)

New York, March 14.—Even should the railroads be threatened by the four brotherhoods of trainmen with a nation-wide strike at the conference to be held here tomorrow with the railroad managers, their stand will be that there can not be at this time any compromise on the question of the eight hour working day. This position will be based on the contention, it was stated authoritatively, that the railroads entered into a stipulation with the government to do nothing to alter the status quo pending a decision by the supreme court on the Adamson law.

A railroad representative said that the managers were convinced that the men asked for the conference for the definite purpose of presenting an ultimatum on the eight hour question. It was stated that it is expected this ultimatum will be based on the demands of the men made last year, on which the strike vote calling for a walkout last September was cast. It will not be based on a demand for the enforcement of the Adamson law, the railroad representative said, as that grants less than the strike vote demanded.

PROF. SURRENDERS

Roanoke, Va., March 14.—Charles E. Vawter, professor of mathematics at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, in whose home Stockton Heth, Jr., a student at the Institute, was shot and seriously wounded, voluntarily surrendered to the authorities at Christiansburg, and after waiving preliminary hearing gave bond for appearance before the grand jury. Two institute professors are his bondsmen. It is said that doctors who were summoned to the Vawter home after the shooting found Heth lying in the upper hallway, clad only in pajamas. Neither Professor or Mrs. Vawter will make any statement.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles. If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

PETITIONS ARE OUT TO AID SUFFERERS IN SUNDAY STORM

Petitions are in circulation in this city, Bloomington, Jeffersonville and northern Fayette to obtain funds to assist some of those who lost virtually all of their earthly possessions in the cyclone last Sunday evening. Mr. Harry Hostler has one of the petitions in this city.

Four or five families are included among those who were robbed of virtually all of their earthly possessions, and who are facing actual need of the necessities of life as a result.

One woman, seriously injured when her little home was torn from over her head, had been doing washings in order to keep the wolf from her door. Other families are in almost the same condition, and must have outside assistance in order to make a new start in life.

ACRES OF COAL; SHORTAGE EXISTS

(Associated Press Cable.)

Amsterdam, March 14.—Piles of coal covering scores of acres are being heaped up around the colliers at Charleroi, Liege, and Mons, where nearly 50,000 Belgians are working in night and day shifts.

Although there is great shortage of coal at places less than a hundred miles away, none of the coal is being moved, as the German authorities require all available means of transportation for military purposes.

Here's One of the Ways Malicious Lies were Circulated about CAMEL Cigarettes

In an effort to injure the wonderful sale of CAMEL cigarettes, many unprincipled schemes have been resorted to. The following is one of many ways such lies have been put into circulation.

An individual liar would approach a group of men, produce a newspaper, published in a distant city, and apparently become interested in reading. Suddenly he would exclaim, "What do you think of this?" He would then pretend to read an article about CAMEL cigarettes. In reality, the paper contained no such statement. The individual would at once walk away, carrying the paper with him. A newspaper from a distant city was always used in an effort to cover the tracks of the liar.

Would anyone voluntarily do this kind of unprincipled work? They must have been paid by someone to do it, and all of them should be exposed. An honest man will not knowingly work under the direction of a crooked superior, nor will an honest superior knowingly tolerate a crooked employee. However, some salesmen have told the trade that they had in their possession a newspaper containing a damaging article about CAMEL cigarettes. This was a malicious falsehood, as they had no such newspaper, and when asked to produce it, they were unable to do so.

CAMEL cigarettes are pure and delightful and the most popular cigarettes ever sold at any price. Cigarette smokers will not, for any length of time, permit malicious falsehoods to prejudice them against CAMELS.
